Meditations for healing body and mind

Sunday 17th September 2017, 10 am- 4 pm

His Eminence Dekhung Gyaltsey Rinpoche was born and rigorously trained in Tibet from an early age in all four lineages of Tibetan Buddhism. He received the “Archarya” (PhD degree) qualification in Buddhist philosophy from the Karma Sri Nalanda University. Rinpoche has studied and practiced as a qualified physician in the field of Tibetan Medicine and Chinese Acupuncture and is a highly respected healer. Over the last 17 years, Rinpoche visited Australia annually to give Buddhist philosophy and meditation teachings and conduct retreats.

This one day workshop will include teachings, meditations, and questions and answer sessions.
